TO MAKE TREES SING

JORDI CAMPOY

A celebrated luthier faces an impossible choice: to create the masterpiece of her lifetime from a five-hundred-year-old tree, or preserve it for a future generation. A powerful novel about art, legacy, memory, and the price of beauty.

01

Winner of the prestigious 59th Prudenci Bertrana Award for its combination of mystery and meditations. An exciting novel about the passage of time, memory, the beauty of imperfection, and the power of art in giving meaning to life.

02

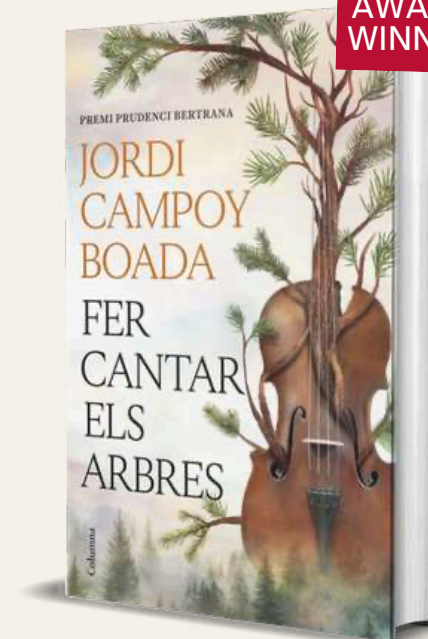

With a protagonist of extraordinary strength, the novel combines emotion, humor, intrigue, and sensitivity. Lucid, ironic, and profoundly tender, her voice takes us on a journey to show that existential questions don't have only one answer.

03

Not just another family saga or historical novel: an exploration of creation, the responsibility in creating beauty, and legacy. A reminder that art is the result of patience, error, and time.

THE TWO-PAGE CLUB

ÁNGELES DOÑATE

A cute, feel-good book set against the backdrop of a little cozy bookshop in Teruel, Spain, filled to the brim with references to classic authors.

01

A book club for those who think a whole book is daunting, but two pages are always approachable. Two pages of Dickens, Tolstoy, or Dumas—enough to start a conversation, mend a loss, make friends, fall in love, and start again.

02

An ode to books, their healing power, and the second chances that life offers us. The main character will invite us into his bookshop and prescribe us books: classic authors are waiting for us hiding behind these shelves.

03

A diverse cast of characters alongside a cute cat called Zhivago will take us on a journey navigating grief, friendship, love, memory, forgiveness, and starting again.

THE SLEEPING GARDEN

CARLA GRACIA

A lost woman, a garden filled with secrets, and the healing power of flowers come together in a profoundly emotional story about rediscovering yourself where you least expect it.

01

A sensory, deeply feminine story about a 44-year-old woman who believes she has lost everything but ends up rediscovering life through a garden. Iris leaves behind a life that no longer fits her and arrives at a neglected garden that quietly mirrors her journey toward healing and transformation.

02

More than 5,000 copies sold in just a few months and already in its 5th Catalan edition!

03

The story combines gentle intrigue, emotional resonance, and a generational thread in which flowers—real and symbolic—guide a woman toward reclaiming her identity.

PERFECTLY IMPERFECT

CARLA GRACIA

A funny and moving novel about real motherhood, family chaos, and the freedom that comes when a woman dares to be herself.

01

A raw, ironic, and deeply honest look at motherhood, this novel dismantles stereotypes and reveals the unspoken truths of raising children, capturing both the beauty and the contradictions of maternal experience.

02

Inspired by real events, the novel approaches motherhood from an honest, imperfect, and deeply human perspective, combining dark humor, tenderness, and social criticism with an accessible and emotionally effective narrative voice.

03

Rut exemplifies many women who have lived under pressure to please and obey, and who are seeking to rediscover themselves. A story for fans of Marian Keyes, Elizabeth Strout, Meg Mason, and Liane Moriarty.

MURDER IN THE BOOK CLUB

ANA GONZÁLEZ DUQUE

A cozy crime set in Valladolid in pure Agatha Christie style. A body in a bookstore. A past everyone wants to bury. A reader who should not have been invited.

01

A cozy background contrasting with the darkness of the crime and the secrets: a story combining the charm of rural life with elements of classic mysteries, by a fresh and enthralling voice.

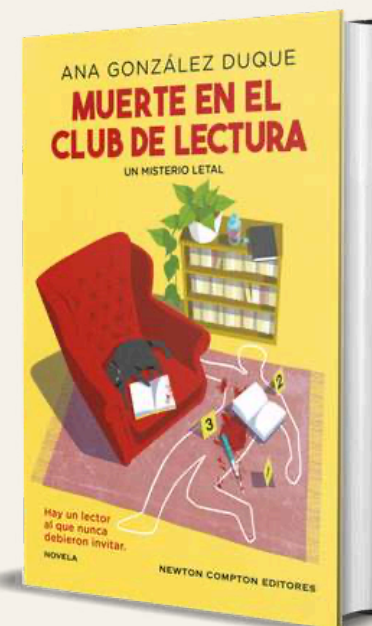

02

It pays homage to key figures of the genre but has a contemporary perspective on emotions and personal conflict. Perfect for fans of Agatha Christie, The Thursday Murder Club by Richard Oseman, and Death of a Posion Pen by M. C. Beaton.

03

Complex characters, tense relationships, and a surprising plot twist at the end that ties all the loose ends and is sure to leave the reader satisfied.

YOUR LAUGHTER SETS ME FREE

JOSÉ ANTONIO LUCERO

A gripping and moving novel that reveals Josefina was far more than just Miguel Hernández's widow: she was his refuge, his memory, and his strength in the face of adversity.

01

José Antonio Lucero tells the story of poet Miguel Hernández and his wife Josefina Manresa through the lens of intimacy, loss, and resilience. A love story that defies oblivion, shaped by a great mutual understanding and companionship.

02

In the style of Hamnet, Josefina Manresa finally takes center stage and we get a glimpse at the invisible figure behind the poet. Josefina was the one to preserve Miguel Hernández's verses, memory, and dignity when war and poverty threatened to erase everything.

03

The author's previous novel, La Maestra, has sold over 50,000 copies across Spain and Italy. He is also the creator of the highly successful YouTube channel, La cuna de Halicarnaso, with more than 340,000 subscribers.

VEREDICT

ANE ODRIOSOLA

A gripping legal thriller that will make the reader face the impossible dilemma of choosing between the truth, justice, and reasonable doubt.

01

For lovers of thrillers and courtroom drama. A book with a strong local identity. Set entirely in San Sebastián, Verdict combines the appeal of Northern Spanish noir with a richly atmospheric setting that builds up its unique character.

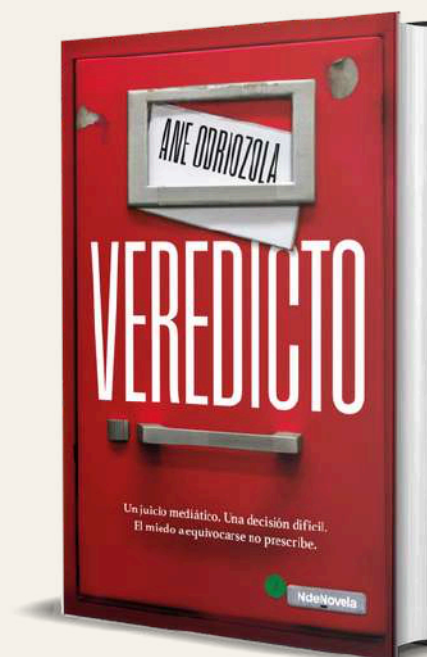

02

A seemingly closed murder case takes a shocking turn when a former prosecutor raises a chilling possibility: the accused may be innocent, and the serial killer may be killing again. Pure entertainment, packed with unexpected twists that will keep you turning the pages at a relentless pace.

03

Ane is best known for her historical fiction, but with Verdict she takes a compelling step into the world of crime fiction and suspense. Her previous works have sold over 10.000 copies in Spain!

HOME

ALEJANDRO PALOMAS

A story about the striking beauty of ordinary things, the love that connects generations, and the unexpected mark we leave on those we cherish most.

01

The life of Mika, a seven-year-old girl, changes after her parents' separation. Lost between two homes and burdened with too many unanswered questions, she finds comfort in her grandfather Tadeo, the only adult who truly seems to understand her.

02

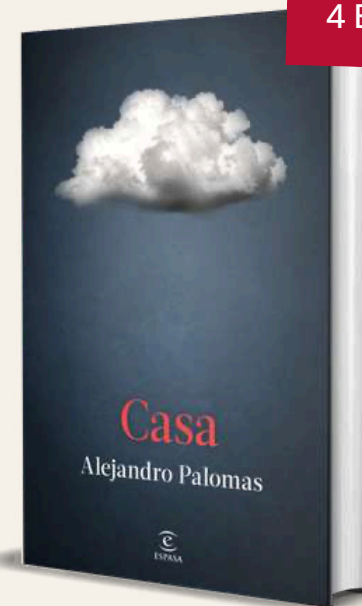

Remarkable sensitivity and a deeply contemporary touch, it is a story that explores universal themes: family, grief, our connection with nature, and the passing down of memory. A gentle, restorative novel that encourages us to look at the world from a different perspective.

03

The new title from our talented author whose work has been translated into more than 24 languages, has sold almost half a million copies worldwide, and has a Netflix adaptation. Winner of the Nadal Prize and the National Prize for Children's and Young Adult Literature, with a strong international track record, he combines literary excellence with a deep connection to his readers, with moving and authentic books.

PUNK PSYCHOLOGY

VICTOR AMAT

*Who said that you have to think positively to be happy?
Finally a self-help book that dares to speak loud and clear.*

01

We seem to be in a time when we need everyone to be happy. Therapy, meditation, yoga, spirituality... If these actually worked, a lot more people would be happy. But negative thoughts are always there, even when we try our hardest to avoid them. That's where we can actually change.

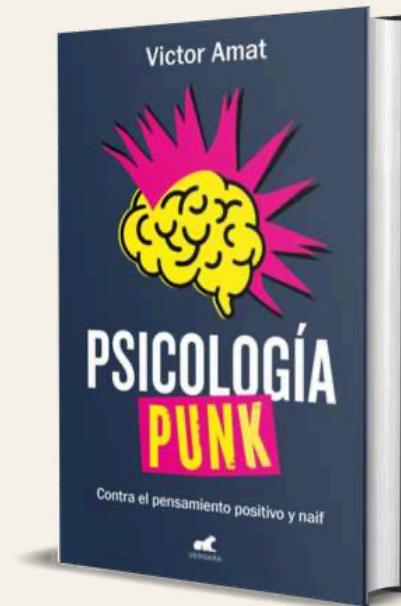

02

In this book, psychologist Victor Amat breaks down one by one the myths of naif thinking and shows that we can vindicate our brain and use it in our favour. And that, despite the paradox, allowing ourselves to be negative can really lead us to well-being.

03

Written by a psychologist who uses his expertise to provide real information and helpful insight. Victor Amat has published many books on the topic that have revolutionized the way we understand personal growth and have reached over 50.000 readers.

INYEON

HANSOO PARK

An inspiring guide that reveals how an ancient Korean concept about destiny and human connections can help us understand our relationships, embrace life's turning points, and find a deeper sense of purpose.

01

From K-dramas to K-pop to Oscar-winning films, Korea dominates the world's cultural imagination. This book reveals the ancient concept of Inyeon, the invisible thread that shapes relationships, choices, and destiny.

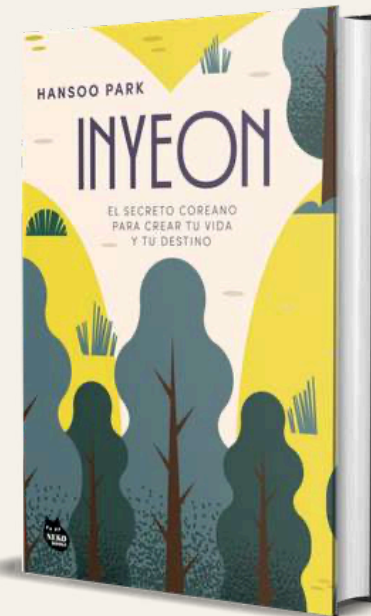

02

A blend of pop culture, history, and personal transformation. It breaks down complex philosophical concepts and makes them accessible to readers from all backgrounds

03

From Squid Game, Parasite, Past Lives, BTS, and Blackpink to Korea's philosophical roots. Readers not only learn why Korean stories resonate globally, but also how these cultural principles can enrich their own lives, decisions, and connections.

ECHOES FROM OLYMPUS

ÀLEX ROVIRA

Leadership psychology expert Àlex Rovira teaches us how Greek Myths can become an emotional map for navigating modern life and dealing with crises, relationships, and personal goals in a healthy way.

01

Àlex Rovira's books have sold over 8 million copies, and he is one of the leading experts in leadership psychology and personal transformation.

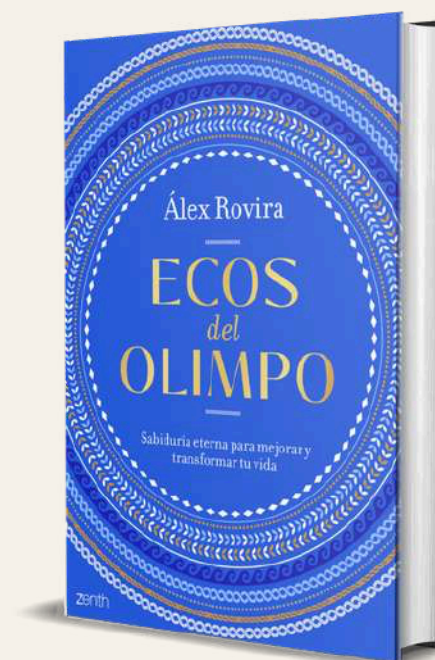

02

Five classic myths—Narcissus, Pygmalion, Chiron, Sisyphus, and Phoenix—are reinterpreted as practical guides for dealing with crises, relationships, and personal quests.

03

The book not only recounts myths, but turns them into emotional tools for everyday life. Ideal for readers seeking meaning and guidance in times of change, with a narrative that combines ancient wisdom and a contemporary perspective.
